UNITY

Progress—even as time—must be undivided and paceless, but if in your thoughts you must measure time into units, let each unit encircle the others.

Miss Ruth Jenkins, Headmistress

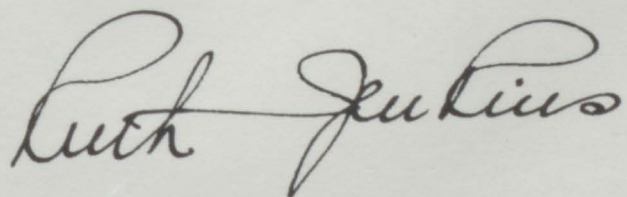

DEDICATION

The Class of 1963 dedicates the Shield to you, Miss Jenkins, with our love, our admiration, and our deepest respect. It is fitting that this yearbook, a record of the memories and meanings of days now past, should begin with you; in all of these memories, in each of these days, you gave to us the support and direction for which we were searching. Your unending gaiety at parties and hockey games, your invaluable guidance both in assembly and in the privacy of your office, and your way of giving strength to us through your faith; these have created a unity and joy within this school which no lesser personality than our "R. J." could have achieved. And now, as we go on together to our new lives and new responsibilities, we want you to know how much your wisdom and devotion have meant to us all, and that in the years to come we will ever strive to approach your examples of faith, courage, and love: "From Strength to Strength."

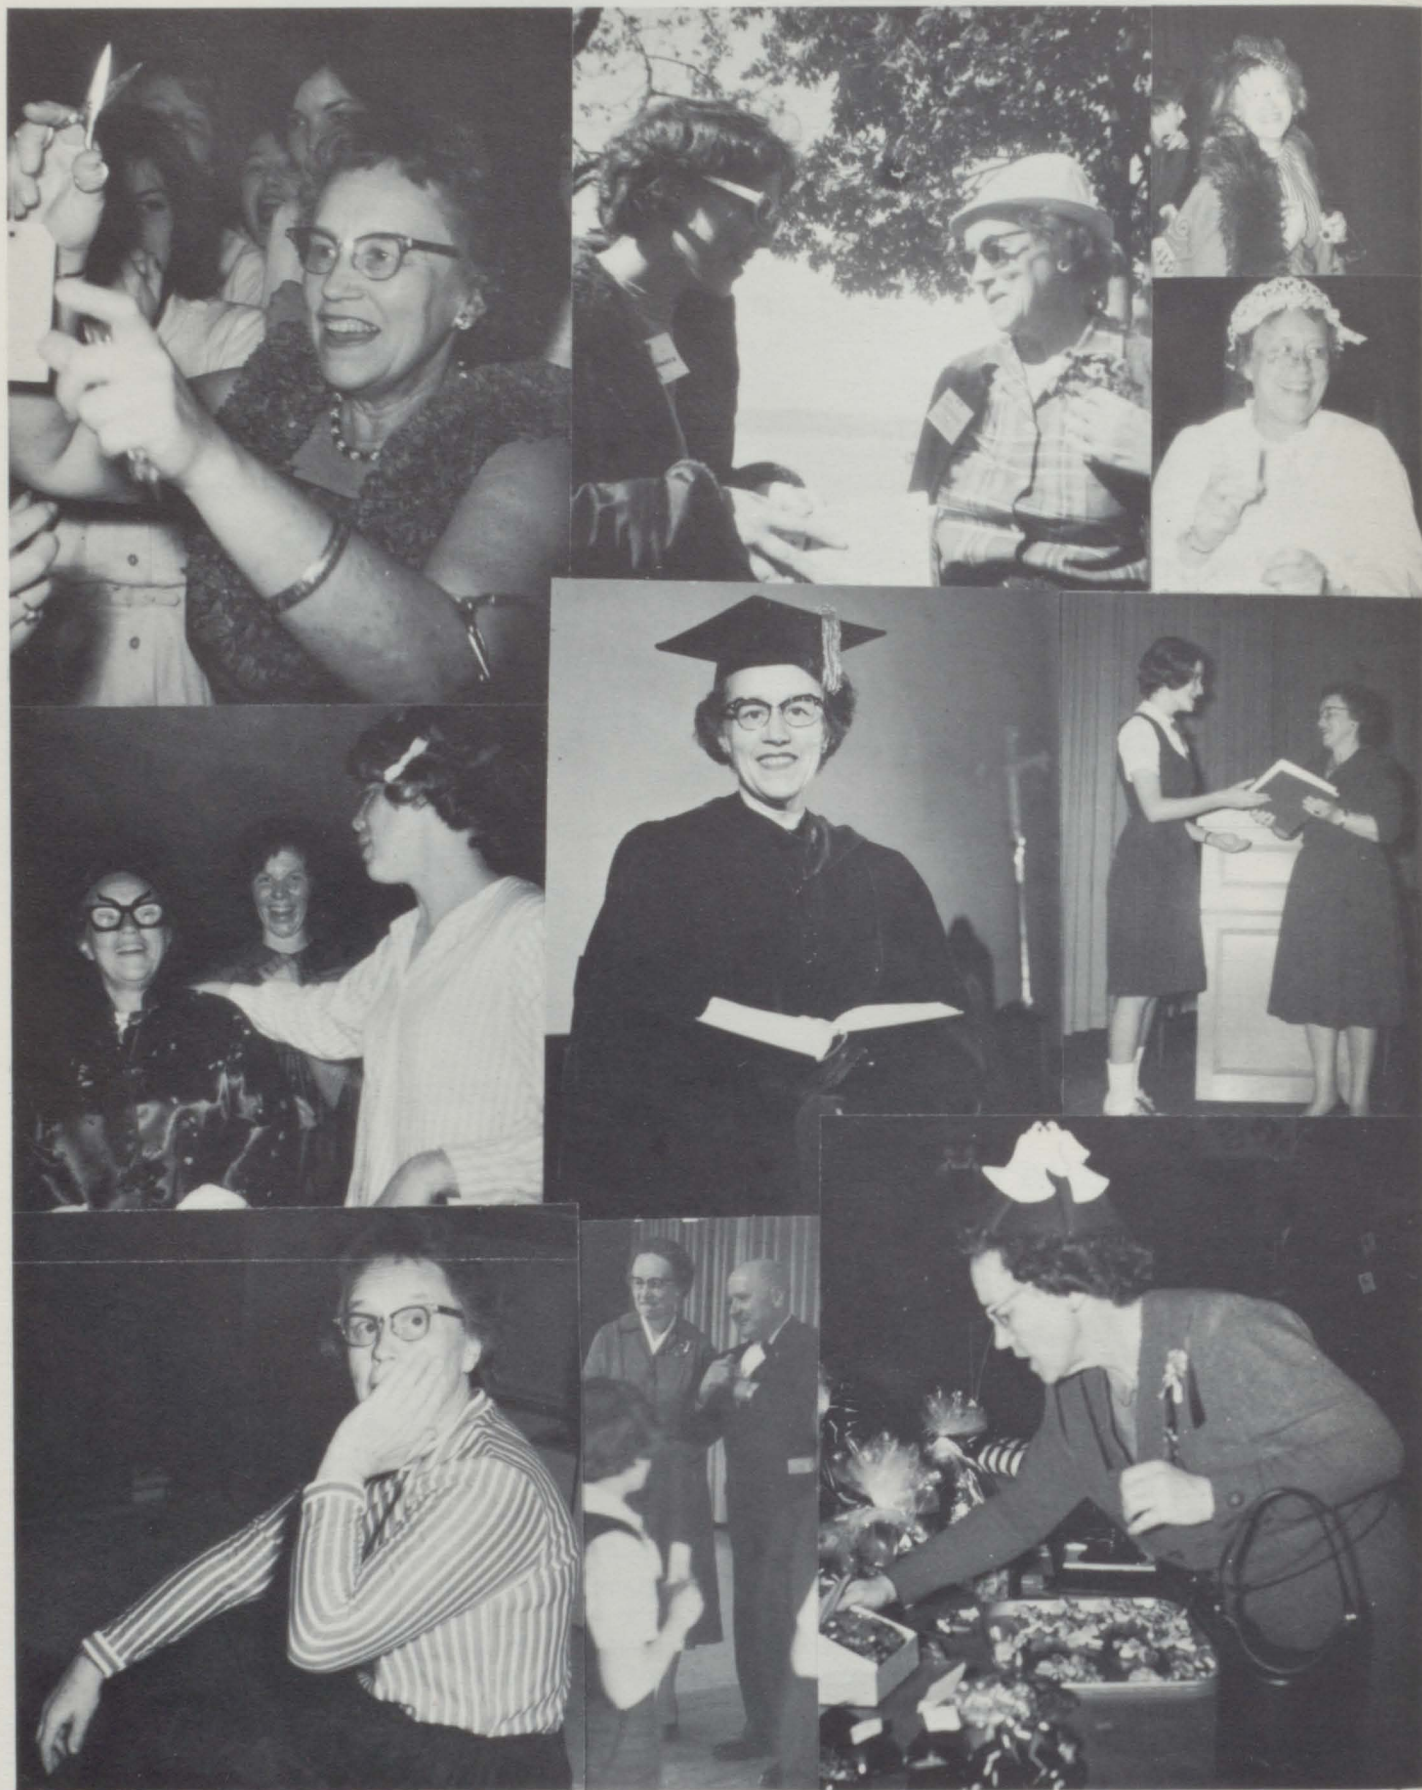

The eighty-fourth Psalm has always been a favorite of mine, the more so since I came to the Seminary, for it is from this source that come the words of our motto "From Strength to Strength."

When you, the members of the Class of 1963, entered this school, you came into a strong and great heritage, as did I when I became headmistress twenty-one years ago. Now you have honored me with membership in your class, and so as alumnae we go forth together from 'these amiable dwellings' as the psalmist says.

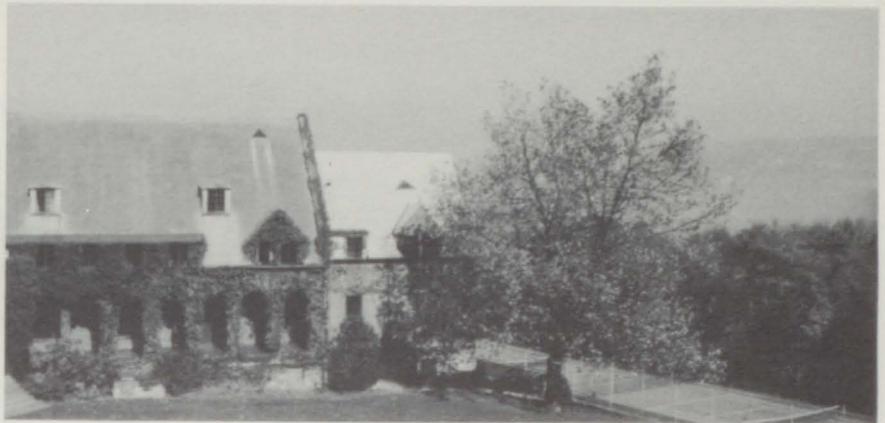

And as we leave this beloved place, I would ask you to pray with me that His strength may continually be given to us and to all who follow us here, that wherever we are we may be strong in His service.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Ruth Jenkins". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned at the bottom right of the page.

LIFE WITH R. J.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Seminary fair:
May achievements crown Thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

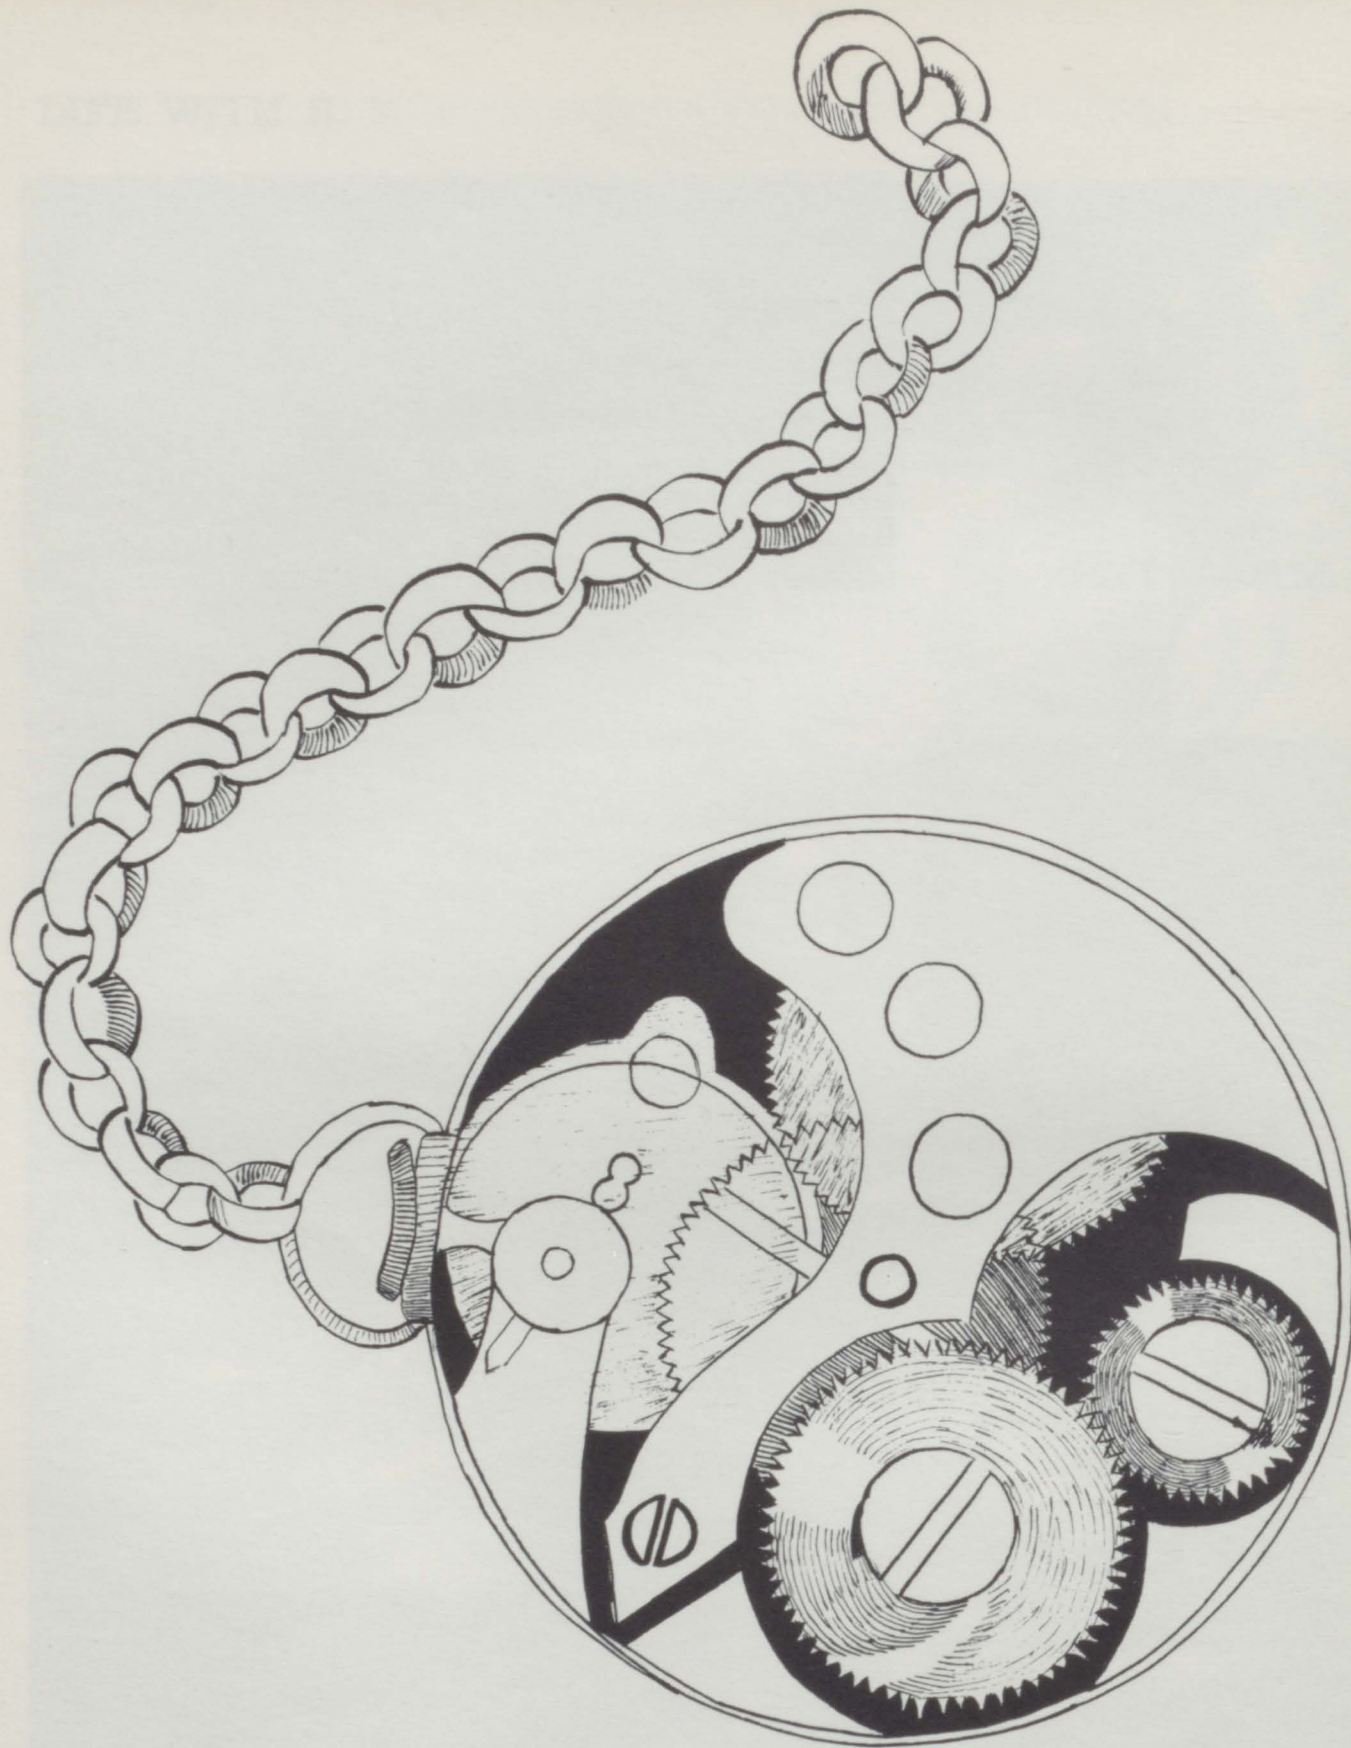

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above,
May the characters thou moldest,
Hold thee in their love.

Pure as yonder snow clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow
Answer to thy call.

CHORUS

Hearts turn toward our Alma Mater
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto
"On from Strength to Strength."

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

The faculty of Annie Wright
Is more than just a guiding light
Within the realm of education,
For our student-teacher relation
Provides a unity unique
Achieved by those of us who seek
Their aid as counselors and friends,
As rival teammates – the count contends
With chaperones on skiing outings,
At dances, downtown – the list is mounting
For never could we completely relate
Our gratitude – we appreciate
The ways in which you've served us here,
Which will benefit us for many a year.

Christmas Carnival

The International theme for the Christmas Carnival provided a marvelous opportunity for both students and faculty to use their ingenuity to create many different articles to sell. The enthusiastic participation of everyone helped to make the festive occasion a great success.

Ivy Vine

Standing, Left to right: Lulu Seeley, Co-Editor; Molly Gerard, Business-Manager; Pamela Hyde, Editor; Seated: Jonnie Russell, Art Director.

Those of us who have special literary interests meet Friday afternoons to discuss and select pieces of creative writing and art submitted by the students for a magazine which is published at the end of the year. Since Ivy Vine provides a chance for students to learn how to best express themselves, members also do some writing during the meetings.

DRAMA GROUP

The Drama Group is open to any girl in the Upper School who wishes to become acquainted not only with dramatic techniques but also with the literature of the theatre. The production of "The Charm School" in March marked the pinnacle of the dramatic studies.

Chairman: Gill King

GLEE CLUB

Those of us who enjoy singing for our own pleasure meet weekly as the Glee Club. We also perform at several functions during the school year: at the Christmas and Easter Carol services and at Graduation.

DANCE GROUP

The Dance Group meets weekly to dance for their own enjoyment and to perfect programs which they present for the School after the Christmas dinner and on May Day. They also perform several times during the year for organizations outside the school.

LOWER SCHOOL

Classes '69 through '76

In the realm of education you've begun to mix.
United in interests, you investigate
The first learning concepts, and relate
What you learn in class each day
To your fun and pleasure, work and play.
Daddies' Day, May Day, a gym demonstration,
And the Doll and Pet Show form your recreation.
Assemblies and Posture Queens add to the fun,
And are enjoyed by everyone.
But L.S. Council has the biggest part
In bringing you closest to Annie's heart,
For as From Strength to Strength you grow
You'll always be represented so.
In Lower, Middle, and Upper School,
Student government's our greatest tool.

More privileges now yours to appreciate,
For Lower School seems long ago
As From Strength to Strength you've continued to grow.
Honor Study Hall – your greatest aim –
Achievement bringing satisfaction and acclaim.
Dances offer a special treat,
An Oriental banquet in Seattle to eat,
Ballroom lessons on Friday night,
Attendance at Dads' Day – another delight.
And remember, the study habits you learn here
Will serve you well in Upper School next year.

Within Upper School you've begun to mix.
 Working together on the Magazine Drive
 In unity all of you began to strive.
 Many and varied the tasks that you hold—
 Composing class songs, selling shirts blue and gold,
 Christmas tree chopping and working on Pound,
 And parties, confetti—we hope that you've found
 Good times can be had when your studies are done,
 And planning ahead leaves you more room for fun.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Class of '65

Marked by vigor, fun, and drive,
 If together on you go
 From Strength to Strength you're bound to grow.
 Decorations seem to be
 A very favorite specialty,
 As in the Front Hall—Christmas time,
 And Council Dance—seaweed sublime!
 And, of course, the library
 Will ever be fixed in our memory
 Thanks to your efforts in making it clear
 The date of our books due—the day and the year.
 Mid all your activities never forget,
 That the two years before you will be better yet!

Class of '64

Although you have just one year more
To be together as a class
You'll find the days too quickly pass.
We were amused at Halloween
When with Macbeth you made the scene,
And your announcements in study hall
Have brought forth laughs from one and all.
From birthday songs to baby pics—
And best of all, you've carefully mixed
A way of life that's fun and ease
Effectively with school studies,
College speakers, and National Merit,
Religious Conference—we give you credit
For your endeavors to meet each test.
And we know next year will be the best.

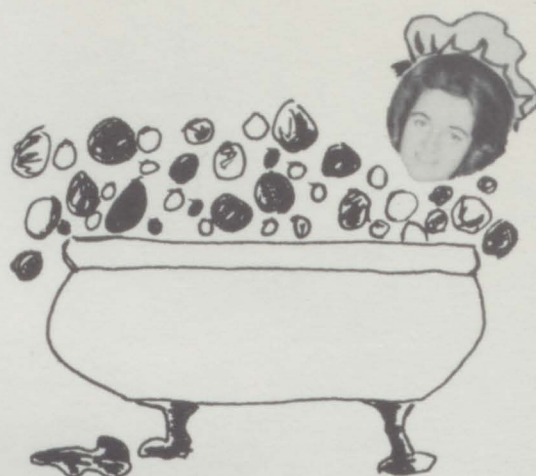

THE CLASS OF 1963

Senior Class of '63

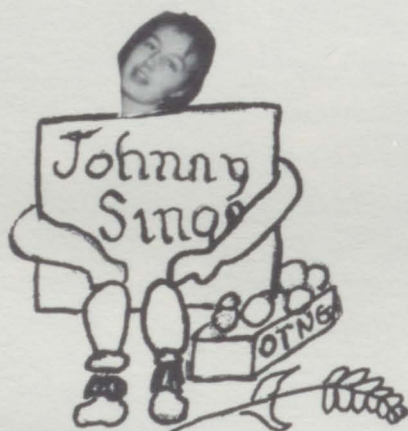

Our spirits linked in unity
 Have undertaken with pride and zest
 To make this last our very best.
 Undeterred by S.A.T.'s
 Or numerous college quanderies
 Which tend to bend the ego low
 From Strength to Strength we've tried to go.
 Memories were gained and stored
 With satisfaction and reward —
 Decision of May Queen to make,
 A completely devoured Founder's Cake,
 Senior movies just half a dollar,
 And never forget our ice cream parlor!
 All our duties performed with ease —
 Experience gained by giving teas.
 Corridor carols at Christmas time,
 And those short weekends—too sublime!
 And thus the year went swiftly by,
 Ending the cycle of emerald tie.
 But we know as we leave these ivied walls
 That a part of our lives reminisce in the halls.
